Perth Ambassador Hotel wins WA Tourism Award for Best Standard Accommodation

The Perth Ambassador Hotel was announced as the winner of the Best Standard Accommodation Award at the prestigious 2010 Western Australian Tourism Awards, held on Saturday 20th November. The Awards are recognised as the State's highest honours in tourism excellence and the win sees the Perth Ambassador Hotel go on to compete at the National Awards.

Having won the 2009 WA Tourism Award in the same category, the Perth Ambassador Hotel is well on its way to cementing its status as one of WA's leading 3.5 star hotels. Offering 170 well-appointed rooms ranging from Standard Rooms to Executive and Lounge Suites, all with complimentary broadband internet access, the Perth Ambassador Hotel is an ideal choice for both corporate and leisure travellers. Facilities include a restaurant and bar, meeting and function rooms, sauna, 24-hour reception, tour desk, mini business centre and secure car parking.

Situated on Adelaide Terrace in the central business district, the Perth Ambassador Hotel is just minutes from the City's main shopping and entertainment area, the Swan River, Perth Convention & Exhibition Centre and tourist attractions.

Their companion property, the Goodearth Hotel, also owned and managed by Australia Pacific Hotels Group, was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2009 having won the Standard Accommodation category three years in a row.
